I INTRODUCTION TO THE NEW SEASON

Dear handball friends,

Usually, the summertime is a quiet time for the EHF Champions League. But not so much in 2022, as we have proudly presented a new title sponsor for Europe's premium men's club handball competition. So, welcome to the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2022/23!

Machineseeker has arrived as title sponsor at the start of the competition's anniversary 30th season. Handball history has been written many times and numerous legends have arisen since the first edition in 1993/94. And I am sure the upcoming season will only add to that legacy! The big question will be if Barça will be holding the trophy for a third straight season at the TruckScout EHF FINAL4 2023 in Cologne. The Spanish record champions could not exactly replicate their perfect 2020/21 season, when they won all 20 matches, but they still ended up on the highest step of the podium again in 2021/22.

Barça's attempt for a third consecutive championship will be anything but a walk in the park. They start their journey in the strong group B alongside three other former champions - RK Celje Pivovarna Lasko, last season's runners-up Lomza Industria Kielce, and four-time trophy holders THW Kiel. On top of that, this extremely challenging companion is further improved by former finalists HBC Nantes and Aalborg Håndbold, and competition regulars Pick Szeged and Elverum Handball.

On the other hand, group A doesn't look much easier, with multiple EHF FINAL4 contenders Paris Saint-Germain Handball and Telekom Veszprém HC, 2002 trophy holders SC Magdeburg, two-time EHF Finals Men contenders Orlen Wisła Płock, perennial Croatian champions HC PPD Zagreb, Portuguese pride FC Porto, reinforced C.S. Dinamo Bucuresti, and dangerous Danish side GOG.

New name, same format: All matches in the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2022/23 will be played on Wednesdays and Thursdays (at 18:4500 and 20:4500 CE(S)T), the two best-ranked teams from each group will advance directly to the quarter-finals, while the teams finishing between third and sixth will first proceed to the play-offs.

I NEW TITLE SPONSOR ON BOARD

Europe's premium club handball competition welcomes the Machineseeker Group, Europe's leading operator of online marketplaces for used machines and commercial vehicles, as new title sponsor for the EHF Champions League Men.

The title sponsorship agreement commences with the start of the 2022/23 season and is initially limited until 30 June 2023. The EHF Champions League Men will be named Machineseeker EHF Champions League and the EHF FINAL4 Men 2023, the competition's final weekend and undisputed top event in Cologne, will be named TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2023, highlighting one of the Group's leading marketplaces.

As part of the sponsorship Machineseeker receives extensive exposure at all 132 matches throughout the season, including floor stickers and LED presence as well as integration in all relevant digital channels and websites of the Machineseeker EHF Champions League.

Furthermore, Machineseeker will become part of the competition's official logo with the new composite logo to be used on all relevant materials on site as well as in digital and print material.

I HANDMADE HISTORY

Ahead of the start of the 30th anniversary season of the EHF Champions League the brand- new digital campaign “Handmade History” was introduced. Handmade History celebrates the rich history of the competition, it’s incredible match action, passionate teams and legendary players, while highlighting the thrilling present and exciting future of the EHF Champions League.

The new campaign highlights the core values of the competition, especially teamwork, passion, and the dedication it takes to write the next chapter of handball history – Handmade History!

I HANDBALLS GET FRESH LOOK FOR THE NEW SEASON

New season, new look! The official SELECT SPORT match balls for the 2022/23 season of the EHF Champions League appear in a high-class and fresh design. In line with the competition's brand identity introduced in 2020, the new EHF Champions League ball showcases the use of flashes of gold colour.

The hand-sewn ball is made of extremely hard-wearing synthetic leather material and a patented zero-wing bladder inside the ball ensures optimal roundness.

The new balls were first introduced at both EHF FINAL4 2022 events - for women, on 4/5 June in Budapest; and for men, on 18/19 June in Cologne.

Only one click away - the Home of Handball Shop

The new official SELECT SPORT match balls as well as more products of the EHF's official supplier can be purchased in the Home of Handball web shop on shop.eurohandball.com. Since its launch in autumn of 2020, customers can get their hands on official match balls and replica balls of all EHF Competitions (EHF Champions League, EHF European League, EHF EURO) and also benefit from worldwide shipping.

I STAY IN TOUCH WITH THE MACHINESEEKER EHF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE

Newsletter, app, social media – fans have the opportunity to follow the Machineseeker EHF Champions League and their favourite teams on multiple digital channels!

| MOTW SHOWCASES THE BEST OF THE BEST

MOTW – when these four letters pop up next to a match, fans are in for a special treat. The Match of the Week (MOTW) is back for the 2022/23 season of the Machineseecker EHF Champions League as well as the EHF Champions League Women.

Every round one match has the honour of shining in the spotlight and carrying the title of Match of the Week. Across all channels fans are treated to a very special coverage that will bring the action even closer to everyone watching around the world.

On match days and during the week, fans should pay the EHFCL social media channels a visit to ensure they get the most out of the content. As in previous seasons the faces of the EHFCL, Hannah Jackson, Markus Floth, and three-time EHF Champions League winner Anja Althaus will lead through the coverage on the competition's social media channels, conducting exclusive interviews with players and giving exceptional insights.

Furthermore, the on-site mobile reporters of the EHF Champions League capture behind the scenes clips and sneak peeks from inside the arenas and bring the coverage of top-flight handball to the next level.

I EHFTV

The OTT portal of the EHF and EHF Marketing, EHFTV has established itself over the past decade as a meeting point for all handball fans. The option to watch EHF games for free, live and on-demand, as well as the opportunity to enjoy additional content created for the EHF competitions on a regular basis, has made EHFTV a unique and highly-appreciated OTT service in the sport market.

The general approach of EHFTV remains, offering the best handball content for free. This approach is complemented with the option to register to the portal for free. This registration gives handball fans the option to watch games live and on-demand, but also allows fans to improve and personalise their fan experience during the season – and all of that for free.

On EHFTV, matches from every EHF competition are available, complemented with highlights, the best goals and saves and plenty of additional content created exclusively for the portal. Since 2020 the new EHFTV has been designed to be fully adaptable to all devices, regardless of whether fans are at home or on the go, the best handball action is accessible any time and from anywhere.

Once the fans enter their EHFTV account, they find an adapted filter menu, with an improved navigation through the portal and the option to personalise it to their favourite competition and/or club directly on their registered account. These features permit all users to find, select and enjoy the best handball in an easy manner.

Furthermore, the state-of-the-art video player, which also includes a multi-screen feature, guarantees the best quality and the perfect conditions to follow the EHF Champions League, whenever it is played.

Join EHFTV and get ready for a new handball era.

TV STATIONS TO BROADCAST MATCHES ALL OVER THE WORLD

Broadcasters will beam the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2022/23 group phase matches into fans' homes in over 30 countries when the competition gets underway this weekend.

Live broadcasters have been confirmed for nations around Europe, plus the USA and the Middle East and North Africa – with fans in those countries not covered able to access the EHF's on-demand platform, EHFTV.

The coverage means fans will be able to keep track of their favourite teams as they progress through the 14 group phase matches ahead.

10 DEBUTANTS, 4 TOP SCORERS, 11 NATIONS, 30TH ANNIVERSARY

FACTS AND FIGURES: ALL THE NUMBERS YOU NEED TO KNOW BEFORE THE START OF THE SEASON

The Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2022/23 starts with 16 teams from 11 countries, including five (former) champions.

With the competition heading into its anniversary 30th season, here are the most important facts and figures before the throw-off on 14/15 September.

0 debutants are among the 16 teams.

1 new title sponsor has become partner of the competition, which is called the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2022/23, culminating in the TruckScout EHF FINAL4 2023.

team has finally managed to win the EHF FINAL4 in back-to-back years: Barça won the title in 2021 after beating Aalborg in the final, and again in 2022 after defeating Kielce in a penalty shootout.

1 more draw will be needed in the rest of the season: for the semi-final pairings at the TruckScout EHF FINAL4 2023 on 17/18 June; the play-offs and quarter-finals will be determined based on the group phase standings.

1 EHF FINAL4 was played with neither a Spanish nor a German team taking part – in 2018, when French sides Montpellier, Nantes, and PSG, and Macedonian team Vardar played for the title.

2 coaches have won the EHF Champions League with different teams: Alfred Gislason with Magdeburg (2002) and Kiel (2010 and 2012); Talant Dujšebaev with Ciudad Real (2006, 2008, 2009) and Kielce (2016).

2 Barça players won their fourth EHF Champions League title last season: Aitor Arino and Gonzalo Perez de Vargas. Three players from teams taking part in the 2022/23 group phase have won the title three times: Aron Palmarsson (Aalborg), Nikola Karabatic (PSG), and Ivan Cupic (Zagreb).

teams per group – the winners and the runners-up – will directly advance to the quarter-finals.

4 (former) EHF Champions League top scorers are part of the 2022/23 group phase: Kielce's Alex Dujšebaev, Aalborg's Mikkel Hansen, PSG's Nikola Karabatic, and Barça's Aleix Gomez; also, two current coaches were top scorers in the past: Kiel's Filip Jicha and Veszprém's Momir Ilic.

4 men have won the EHF Champions League as a player and a coach: Antonio Ortega, Talant Dujšebaev, Roberto Parrondo, and Filip Jicha.

4 of the 16 coaches have won the EHF Champions League title as coach: Barça's Carlos Ortega with Barça, Kielce's Talant Dujšebaev with Ciudad Real and Kielce; Dinamo's Xavi Pascual with Barça, and PSG's Raul Gonzalez with Vardar.

4 (former) IHF World Players of the Year are part of the 2022/23 group phase: PSG's Nikola Karabatic (2007, 2014, 2016), Aalborg's Mikkel Hansen (2011, 2015, 2018), Kiel's Domagoj Duvnjak (2013), and Kiel's Niklas Landin (2019, 2021); also, two coaches received the award in the past: Kielce's Talant Dujšebaev and Kiel's Filip Jicha.

5 of the 16 coaches have won the EHF Champions League as a player: Barça's Carlos Ortega with Barça, Kielce's Talant Dujšebaev with Santander, and Veszprém's Momir Ilic, Kiel's Filip Jicha, and Børge Lund all with Kiel.

5 nations are represented by two teams each in the 2022/23 group phase: Denmark, France, Germany, Hungary, and Poland.

5 teams that did not take part in the 2021/22 group phase are back for on the starting grid for the 2022/23 season: Celje, GOG, Magdeburg, Nantes, and Plock.

5 teams in the 2022/23 group phase have combined won the trophy 17 times in the past: Barça (10 titles), Kiel (4), Magdeburg, Celje, and Kielce (1 each).

6 countries are represented by the 29 EHF Champions League winners so far: Spain (16 titles), Germany (7), France, North Macedonia (2 each), Poland, and Slovenia (1 each).

9 of 13 EHF FINAL4 winners so far are part of the 2022/23 group phase; the four teams missing are Hamburg, Flensburg, Montpellier, and Vardar.

10 titles (1995-2000, 2011, 2015, 2021, 2022) make Barça the record winners of the EHF Champions League; Kiel (2007, 2010, 2012, 2020) are next with four titles.

10 Spanish coaches have combined won 19 EHF Champions League titles: Valero Rivera (5), Talant Dujšebaev (4), Xavi Pascual (3), Carlos Ortega, Javier Cuesta, Julian Ruiz, Francisco Equisoain, Francesc Espar, Raul Gonzalez and Roberto Parrondo (1 each); Dujšebaev, Parrondo and Gonzalez won with non-Spanish teams.

11 nations are represented by the 16 teams in the 2022/23 group phase; two fewer than in 2021/22.

13 goals is the biggest winning margin for any of the 24 EHF FINAL4 matches so far, set in 2021 when Barça defeated Aalborg 36:23.

16 times, the EHF Champions League trophy went to a team from Spain: Barça (10), Ciudad Real (3), Santander, Irun, and Portland (1 each).

16 or 18 matches long is the road to the TruckScout EHF FINAL4 2023 on 17/18 June, depending on whether the team in question has skipped the play-offs or not.

20 wins from 20 matches was the season record set by Barça in 2020/21.

20 matches played at EHF FINAL4 events makes Aron Palmarsson (now Aalborg) the record holder.

29 participations (including 2022/23) make Zagreb the record holders, ahead of Veszprém (28), Celje (27), Barça (26), and Kiel (25).

68 goals (in his 14 matches) make retired Kiril Lazarov the all-time top scorer of the EHF FINAL4.

132 matches are scheduled for the 2022/23 season: 112 in the group phase, eight in the play-offs, eight in the quarter-finals, four at the TruckScout EHF FINAL4 2023.

267 wins (plus 22 draws and 61 defeats) give Barça the lead in the all-time EHF Champions League standings.

280 goals were scored at the EHF FINAL 4 2022, more than ever before – remarkably, three of the four matches ended in 37:35.

7,652 goals were scored in the 2021/22 season: 6,408 in the group phase; 478 in the play-offs; 486 in the quarter-finals; 280 at the EHF FINAL4.

GROUP A PREVIEW

STALWARTS AND NEW FACES MINGLE

While group A may feature some of the biggest names in European handball, none of its sides has won the EHF Champions League since 2002, when SC Magdeburg lifted the trophy after defeating Veszprém in the final.

The German side will make their comeback to the Machineseecker EHF Champions League this season, after missing out since 2006. In the meantime, SCM won the EHF European League in 2021 and reached the final again in 2022.

Magdeburg have built an impressive side over the last couple of seasons. Even though they lost goalkeeper Jannick Green to Paris Saint-Germain, Magdeburg will still be able to count on serial-scorer Ómar Ingi Magnusson, who netted 71 times in the European League last season.

While Magdeburg appear as outsiders in the run for the first two spots of the group, Veszprém and Paris definitely look like favourites. Although neither team has yet lifted the Champions League trophy, they made it to Cologne several times in the past few seasons.

Veszprém's last trip to the LANXESS Arena dates back to last June, when they were defeated in the semi-final by Kielce. After strengthening themselves with Icelandic left-winger Bjarki Mar Elisson and Serbian lineplayer Dragan Pechmalbec, the Hungarian side will try to make it all the way to the EHF FINAL4 yet again.

Paris Saint-Germain are one of their fiercest rivals for the top spot and a direct qualification to the quarter-finals. The French side may be going through a rebuilding season, with stalwarts Vincent Gérard, Nédim Rémili and Mikkel Hansen having left in the summer, but signings Andreas Palicka and Green will provide some security between the posts.

Alongside Magdeburg, some unfamiliar faces will feature in group A. Orlen Wisla Plock and GOG's last participation date back to 2019/20. Both teams have proven to be among the best in the European League since, with the Polish side playing the EHF Finals two seasons ago while GOG qualified twice for the quarter-finals.

For their return to the Champions League, Plock drafted Croatian national goalkeeper Kristian Pilipovic as well as a few of the brightest upcoming stars in Europe, like Gonzalo Pérez Arce and Tomas Piroch.

GOG also underwent some changes, with several players, including Mathias Gidsel, leaving last summer. But the Danish side have proven in the past their ability to discover new talents.

FC Porto is on the starting line of the Champions League for the fourth straight season, with a team that has barely changed since last season when they reached the play-offs.

C.S. Dinamo Bucuresti and Zagreb did not make it out of the group phase last season, but both have signed many stars this summer. European League winner Lazar Kucic and Champions League winner Ali Zein both join the Romanian team, from SL Benfica and Barça respectively. After upsetting Kielce and Veszprem last season, Dinamo can hope to make it to the play-offs for the first time this year.

While Zagreb lost David Mandic and Marin Sipic at the end of last season, they managed to seduce the former Champions League winner from Vardar, Timur Dibirov. With this asset, the Croatian side hopes to make it out of the group phase, something they have not done since 2018/19.

PARIS SAINT–GERMAIN HANDBALL

Last season, Paris Saint-Germain HB missed the EHF FINAL4 Men for the first time since 2018/19. After a tough group phase, where the French side faced Barça, Lomza Industria Kielce and Telekom Veszprém, PSG fell short by just one goal against 2019/20 champions THW Kiel in the quarter-finals.

While the squad had remained exactly the same last summer, coach Raul Gonzalez now faces a massive rebuilding job before the Machineseker EHF Champions League 2022/23 season begins after four key players left the club in June.

Main facts:

- PSG will celebrate their 10th consecutive season in the Machineseker EHF Champions League – their 11th overall
- they have reached the EHF FINAL4 five times, but their only appearance in the final came in 2017
- in the 2021/22 season, Paris were defeated by THW Kiel 63:62 on aggregate in the quarter-finals
- important players like Nedim Remili, Benoit Kounkoud (both Kielce), Mikkel Hansen (Aalborg) and Vincent Gerard (Saint-Raphaël) left the club in the summer
- major signings include goalkeepers Andreas Palicka and Jannick Green, as well as EHF EURO 2018 champion David Balaguer

SC MAGDEBURG

20 years after the biggest success in club history – winning the EHF Champions League in 2001/02 – SC Magdeburg are back on the big stage in the Machineseecker EHF Champions League. In June, the EHF European League 2020/21 winners and 2021/22 runners-up took their second Bundesliga title.

Magdeburg, who will meet the likes of Telekom Veszprém HC, Paris Saint-Germain Handball and FC Porto in group A, are hoping for a long-lasting adventure in their fifth EHF Champions League season.

Main facts:

- sealed their Machineseecker EHF Champions League spot by winning their first Bundesliga title since 2001
- first Champions League appearance since 2005/06 – after winning the competition in the 2001/02 season
- said farewell to goalkeeper Jannick Green (to PSG) and line player Magnus Gullerud (Kolstad) at the end of last season
- the only two new arrivals are both Swiss internationals: goalkeeper Nikola Portner and line player Lucas Meister

GOG

Joy and disappointment were close at GOG last season: hit by injuries, the Danish side missed the EHF Finals 2022 following a quarter-final defeat by RK Nexø. But a few weeks later, GOG dethroned Aalborg Håndbold as Danish champions.

After a huge transition in the squad, which included the departure of several key players, GOG are now back in the Machineseeker EHF Champions League for the first time since 2019/20.

Main facts:

- last played the CL in 2019/20, finishing third in group C and missing the play-offs
- have reached the CL knock-out phase twice: in 2004/05 and 2006/07
- made it to the EHF European League quarter-finals last season, losing 69:64 on aggregate to RK Nexø
- beat Aalborg 27:26 away in the final of the Danish league to seal their eighth title and to secure their Champions League spot
- notable departures include star right back Mathias Gidsel – the MVP of the Tokyo Olympics – and goalkeepers Torbjørn Bergerud and Viktor Hallgrímsson; new signings include Swedish keeper Tobias Thulin

FC PORTO

FC Porto have been regulars in the Machineseecker EHF Champions League knockout phase each season since they played the final tournament of the EHF Cup in 2019. But a quarter-final berth has remained out of reach.

Aalborg Håndbold and Montpellier HB defeated Porto in the play-offs the last two seasons. After losing a couple of players this summer and replacing them mainly with Scandinavian talents, Porto want to keep improving and get to the quarter-finals for the first time in 2022/23.

Main facts:

- this season will be Porto's fourth straight EHF Champions League season and 13th overall
- Porto have qualified for the knockout phase in each of the last three seasons
- last season, Porto won the domestic title for the 23rd time
- this summer, Porto saw two players move to the German Bundesliga: Ivan Sliskovic and Djibril M'Bengue, and one to the French Starligue: Diogo Silva
- three Scandinavian players were signed, including Nikolaj Læsø from fellow EHF Champions League competitors Aalborg

CS DINAMO BUCURESTI

Signing Xavi Pascual as the new coach at the start of the 2021/22 season was a huge coup for C.S. Dinamo Bucuresti, as the Spanish coach was just coming off a flawless season with Barça.

Dinamo did not make it into the play-offs, but with plenty of new experienced players, Pascual and the Romanian champions are ready to make waves in the Machineseeeker EHF Champions League 2022/23.

Main facts:

- this will be the second season for Spanish coach Xavi Pascual at Dinamo, as he ushered in a new era for the Romanian champions
- Dinamo will have seven former EHF Champions League winners in their squad: Cédric Sorhaindo, Mamdouh Shebib, Ali Zein, Eduardo Gurbindo, Khalifa Ghedbane, Christian Dissinger, Alex Pascual
- since the current format of the competition was introduced, Dinamo have never progressed to the knockout phase
- the Romanian side lost their last season's top scorer, left back Raul Nantes Campos, who netted 78 times

TELEKOM VESZPRÉM HC

Having reached the EHF FINAL4 Men seven times in the last nine years, Telekom Veszprém HC are regular participants in Cologne. Indeed, only Barça can match this record of reaching European handball's showpiece event.

On the other hand, Veszprém's long dream of claiming the Machineseecker EHF Champions League title has not yet come true, but the club started a new era with Momir Ilic as head coach last season.

Main facts

- this will be the club's 45th season since it was established in 1977
- prolific wings Mikita Vailupau and Bjarki Mar Elisson joined Veszprém in the summer
- fan favourite Máté Lékai left the club after eight seasons
- although Veszprém are the most successful Hungarian club, they have finished as runners-up in the domestic championship in back-to-back seasons
- Veszprém won the Hungarian Cup in the 2021/22 season

HC PPD ZAGREB

In the 2021/22 season, HC PPD Zagreb continued their perfect streak in Croatia, taking both the league and cup titles. After two disappointing European seasons, Zagreb also got back on track internationally and they want to build up on that this Machineseecker EHF Champions League season.

With two surprising signings and a well-tuned team, Zagreb are aiming to return, at least, to the play-offs.

Main facts:

- head coach Ivica Obrvan took over in February 2021 and renewed his contract in June until 2024
- Zagreb's two biggest signings for the new season are former EHF Champions League winners: Timur Dibirov and Vuko Borozan
- Zagreb's 29th appearance in the EHF Champions League makes them the record holders for participations
- Jakov Gojun has taken over as team captain
- for the second consecutive season, Zagreb will play in the Croatian league from the start

GROUP B PREVIEW

ARGUABLY THE BEST GROUP IN HISTORY

Former EHF Champions League winners THW Kiel and Lomza Industria Kielce, along with Mikkel Hansen's new club Aalborg Håndbold, will be hunting defending champions Barça in group B of the Machineseeker EHF Champions League.

However, those four teams may not be the only contenders from group B for the Trucksout24 EHF FINAL4 2023, as Pick Szeged also hope to make it to Cologne.

With three clubs from the EHF FINAL4 Men 2022, including both finalists, group B will offer the best of the best in this competition. "This is probably the best group ever in the history of the Champions League," said THW Kiel manager Viktor Szilagyí.

Barça will be hunted again after completing a historic double in June, when they won the EHF Champions League for the 10th time and became the first side to defend the title at the LANXESS arena in Cologne. On that occasion, Carlos Ortega's side beat Lomza Industria Kielce after a penalty shoot-out in the final.

The record Champions League winners have strengthened their squad with an outstanding Scandinavian trio. Goalkeeper Emil Nielsen arrived from group phase opponents HBC Nantes, while Swedish EHF EURO champions Jonathan Carlsbogard and Hampus Wanne transferred from TBV Lemgo and SG Flensburg-Handewitt, respectively. With a well-prepared and balanced squad, Barça are the side to beat again.

The main question for Lomza Industria Kielce is how they have coped with their dramatic final defeat. The Polish champions signed many new players but allowed some to go out on loan to other clubs – such as top Balkan talents Stefan Dodic (to HC PPD Zagreb) and Halil Jaganjac (to Rhein-Neckar Löwen).

But the two biggest signings will definitely improve the quality of Talant Dujshabaev's side: Nedim Remili and Benoit Konkoud. The two Olympic and world champions are the third and fourth French players, after Nicolas Tournat and Dylan Nahi, to join Kielce's squad.

THW Kiel, ranked third at the EHF FINAL4 2022, will suffer from the same injury problems they had in Cologne until the competition restarts in 2023. Defence specialist Hendrik Pekeler and prolific playmaker Sander Sagosen are out for several months. Swedish backs Eric Johansson and Karl Wallinius, two young EHF EURO champions, and Norwegian line player Petter Ørverby should step in. Despite the injuries, Kiel are aiming high in their last season with superstars Sander Sagosen and Niklas Landin.

Aalborg are more than a dark horse in group B – mainly because of one player: Mikkel Hansen. After 10 years at PSG, the three-time IHF World Player of the Year returned to Denmark. Hansen finally hopes to add the only major trophy missing in his cabinet – the EHF Champions League. After making it to the final in the 2020/21 season against Barça, Aalborg are the fourth side in this group with the clear mission of making it to Cologne again. Hansen has not played for almost half a year, so he will need time to adapt to his new surroundings.

The remaining four teams have the same goal of reaching the knockout stage, but the base from which they start is quite different. Hungarian champions Pick Szeged have never made it to Cologne, despite reaching the quarter-finals several times. Szeged hope to get closer to the EHF FINAL 4 Men with almost the same squad. In the previous season, Szeged defeated Kiel and Aalborg in the group phase – but failed in the play-offs.

HBC Nantes – EHF Champions League finalists in 2018 and EHF FINAL4 participants in 2020 – are in transition after the arrival of new coach Gregory Cojean. Cornerstones like Kiril Lazarov, Emil Nielsen, Dragan Pechmalbec and David Balaguer have left the French club. However, Nantes have big hopes in Jorge Maqueda, who returned from Hungary, and new but experienced goalkeepers Ivan Pesic and Viktor Hallgrímsson.

Elverum Handball and RK Celje Pivovarna Laško are two of the younger teams in the competition, and they will play the role of underdogs in this group. Elverum lost rising stars Eric Johansson and Dominik Mathe in the summer, whereas 2003/04 EHF Champions League winners Celje have a pool of talents as they return to the top-flight competition for their 27th season.

BARÇA

After winning back-to-back EHF Champions Leagues over the last two seasons, the side from Barcelona start as red-hot favourites to claim this season's trophy. Three title wins in a row is what Barça are chasing in the coming season, after lifting the trophy in 2021 and 2022. They are the only team to win this competition three times in a row, a feat they pulled off as part of their run of five victories from 1996 to 2000. However, no team has done so since the EHF FINAL4 started in 2010, in fact Barça were the first team to win consecutive titles since then.

Main facts

- Barça will play their 26th season in the Champions League in 2022/23
- the Spanish side holds the record for most titles won in the competition (10), including the last two editions
- last season, they defeated Kielce in the final in Cologne after dominating THW Kiel in the semi-final
- players such as Ali Zein and Angel Fernandez left the club in the summer, and only three new faces joined the roster in August
- major signings for next season include goalkeeper Emil Nielsen (Nantes), Swedish left winger Hampus Wanne (Flensburg) and fellow compatriot Jonathan Carlsbogard (TBV Lemgo)

PICK SZEGED

Pick Szeged made history in the 2021/22 season as they clinched back-to-back Hungarian league titles. SG Flensburg-Handewitt stopped Szeged in the EHF Champions League play-offs, but the Hungarian side's squad has not changed much before the upcoming Machineseecker EHF Champions League season.

Team captain Bence Bánhidi, one of Szeged's most valuable players, has fully recovered after a long-term injury, providing the team with a huge boost at both ends of the court.

Main facts:

- this will be Pick Szeged's 21st season in the Machineseecker EHF Champions League
- the Hungarian club have never reached the EHF FINAL4 Men
- Szeged's off-season was one of the quietest on the continent, as only one player left the squad while Zoltan Szita became their sole signing before the 2022/23 season
- Spanish head coach Juan Carlos Pastor starts his 10th season with Szeged

THW KIEL

Reaching the EHF FINAL4 is a traditional season goal for four-time winners and 2022 bronze medallists THW Kiel.

However, the club begins the 2022/23 season without star Sander Sagosen and defence boss Hendrik Pekeler, both sidelined through injury – Sagosen has been ruled out until at least December. The German side will need to use all their bench depth to succeed in a group including Barça and Kielce.

Main facts

- had two All-star Team members last season: goalkeeper Niklas Landin and best defender Hendrik Pekeler
- after two back-to-back Bundesliga victories in 2020 and 2021, were runners-up in 2022 to Magdeburg
- head coach Filip Jicha is now in his fourth season in charge – and is still the only person to win the EHF Champions League in Cologne as player and coach
- star centre back Sander Sagosen missed the EHF FINAL4 2022 after breaking his ankle. 2022/23 is set to be his last season at Kiel, and goalkeeper Niklas Landin will also leave next summer
- squad is bolstered by Tomas Mrkva (from Bergischer) and Eric Johansson (Elverum) among others

HBC NANTES

When HBC Nantes last played in the Machineseeker EHF Champions League, they lost to Barça and Paris Saint-Germain HB at the EHF FINAL4 Men 2021. But being among the last four in Europe's biggest club competition was already an achievement for Nantes, as this was their second qualification for the EHF FINAL4, after 2018.

In a group featuring the last two EHF Champions League winners, and with a team that has been rejuvenated a lot since 2021, Nantes are aiming one of the positive surprise stories of the season again.

Main facts:

- this is Nantes' fifth season in the EHF Champions League, and their first season dates back to 2016/17
- the French side reached the EHF FINAL4 twice, in 2018 and 2021, and even made the final in 2018
- last season, they reached the EHF European League Men quarter-finals, where they lost to SC Magdeburg
- the squad has undergone some important changes this summer, with Emil Nielsen, Dragan Pechmalbec and David Balaguer leaving the club and Kiril Lazarov retiring
- summer signings include goalkeepers Ivan Pesic and Viktor Hallgrímsson, as well as right back Jorge Maqueda

ELVERUM HANDBALL

Elverum Handball are ready to start their ninth straight season in the Machineseeker EHF Champions League. After making it out of the group phase in both 2020/21 and 2021/22, the Norwegian side have their eyes set on yet another appearance in the knockout phase for the upcoming season.

In order to keep their dreams of a play-off spot – or even more – alive, Elverum will have to advance from a very strong group B.

Main facts:

- this is Elverum's eighth consecutive season in the EHF Champions League
- they won the Norwegian league for the sixth time last season, defeating ØIF Arendal in the final
- several key players have left the team, including Dominik Mathe (PSG) and Eric Johansson (Kiel) who both joined title contenders
- the side will focus on some of the best Scandinavian talents, who joined this summer
- Elverum will face the likes of titleholders Barça, 2020 champions THW Kiel, and 2022 finalists Lomza Industria Kielce

Emil Kheiri Imsgard

 @kherio

Goalkeeper

- has played all of his professional career in Elverum
- this season will be his seventh in the Champions League, after playing his first season in the competition only aged 16
- has to step into the spotlight this season as former number 1 Thorsten Fries moved back to Denmark last summer

Šimon Mizera

 @simon_miz

Goalkeeper

- young Czech goalkeeping prospect joined in the summer of 2022 from Robe Zubri
- up until his move to Norway never played for a foreign club
- already at the age of 18 made a debut in the senior national team in a friendly match vs Slovakia in 2019
- as of September 2022 he had 13 caps including three matches at the EHF EURO 2022 in Bratislava

Sindre Heldal

 @sindreheldal

Left wing

- young Norwegian player, who arrived from Naerbo Idrettslag in the summer of 2021
- scored 63 goals for his first Champions League season in 2021/22
- managed to take the pressure under his stride when it came to replacing Alexander Blonz last season

Uros Borzas

Left back

- moved to Elverum in 2022 after playing for two seasons for French side Toulouse
- 2022/23 will be his first experience in the CL after playing the EL many times with former sides
- scored a career-high 36 goals last season in the European League, when Toulouse reached the quarter-finals

Tobias Grøndahl

Centre back

- the Norwegian playmaker is one of the revelations of the 2021/22 season as he shot to the upper echelons of the top scorer ranking
- in his third season in Europe, he claims to have “cracked the code on how to find my teammates in open spaces whilst still being a threat myself”
- became Elverum’s first-choice playmaker at the age of 20
- has appeared at senior level for Norway but yet to be called up for a major championship

Endre Langaas

Line player

- starting his fifth season in Elverum, having joined the club in 2018
- 2020/21 was his best season in the Champions League so far, with 37 goals scored
- his performances have allowed to play a few stints with the Norwegian national team, though he has yet to make his debut in a major competition

Stig-Tore Moen

 @gitsmoen

Right back

- moved back to Norway in 2021 after leaving Bodo in 2016
- played for Kristianstad from 2016 to 2019 and in GOG from 2019 to 2021
- his career high in the Champions League dates back to 2018/19, when he scored 65 for Kristianstad

Christopher Hedberg

 @christopherhed

Right wing

- Swedish wing who joined Elverum in 2020 from Skövde
- scored 21 goals for Elverum in the Champions League in 2020/21, his first season in the competition and his best one so far
- Elverum is his first foreign club, after four seasons with Skövde (2016-20) and four with HK Aaranäs (2012-16)

AALBORG HÅNDBOLD

Three-time IHF World Player of the Year Mikkel Hansen returning home to Denmark to play for Aalborg Håndbold after 10 years in Paris is the top transfer of 2022 in international handball.

His new club hopes that Hansen's skills and experience will help them make the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2023 in Cologne. But in the Machineseeker EHF Champions League group phase, Aalborg will face three participants from the EHF FINAL4 Men 2022 – Barça, Lomza Industria Kielce and THW Kiel – in group B.

Main facts:

- after reaching the EHF FINAL4 Men in 2021, Aalborg lost to Telekom Veszprém in the quarter-finals last season
- Aalborg were runners-up in the Danish league 2021/22, after GOG defeated them in the final
- this will be Aalborg's eighth participation; their best performance came in 2021, when they lost in the final to Barça
- the club signed Danish superstar Mikkel Hansen for this season and have already announced the arrival of Niklas Landin for 2023

I IMPORTANT REGULATIONS – NO AWAY GOALS RULE

Away goals not among the criteria to decide the ranking anymore

All matches shall be played in accordance with the IHF's current Rules of the Game. Variations on a technical level are possible. All matches shall be played in 2 x 30 minutes with a half-time break of 15 minutes.

The matches shall be scored as follows:

- a) win = 2 points
- b) draw = 1 point
- c) loss = 0 points

Teams' rankings are obtained by adding up the number of points won.

GROUP PHASE

If two or more teams have scored the same number of points, the ranking will be determined as follows:

During the group phase:

- a) higher goal difference in all matches;
- b) higher number of plus goals in all matches.

After completion of the group phase if two teams have scored the same number of points:

- a) number of points in matches of the two teams directly involved;
- b) goal difference in matches of the two teams directly involved;
- c) goal difference in all matches of the group;
- d) higher number of plus goals in all matches of the group;

After completion of the group phase if three or more teams have scored the same number of points:

- a) number of points in matches of all teams directly involved;
- b) goal difference in matches of all teams directly involved;
- c) higher number of plus goals in matches of all teams directly involved;
- d) goal difference in all matches of the group;
- e) higher number of plus goals in all matches of the group;

If the ranking of one of these teams is determined, the criteria are consecutively followed until the ranking of all teams is determined.

If no ranking can be determined, a decision shall be obtained by drawing lots. Lots shall be drawn by the EHF, if possible, in the presence of a responsible of each club.

PLAY-OFF AND QUARTER-FINAL MATCHES

If, after completion of the two matches, both clubs have won the same number of points (no extra time will be played), the teams' standings shall be determined by the following criteria:

- a) goal difference
- b) penalty throws

RULES FOR EXECUTION OF PENALTY THROWS

- Only players (incl. goalkeepers) who are listed on the match report and are not suspended or disqualified at the end of the playing time are entitled to participate at the penalty throws.
- Prior to the penalty throws, each team shall name five players by handing the referees a list of numbers. These players shall then take one throw each until a decision (a winner) is reached, alternating with their opponents. Each team is free to determine the sequence in which throwers will take their throws.
- The goalkeepers may be freely selected from the match report and exchanged in accordance with the Rules of the Game. Goalkeepers may take throws and throwers may perform as goalkeepers.
- The referees shall choose the goal at which throws are taken. The team taking the first penalty throw shall be determined by the referees by drawing lots. The team winning the draw may choose whether it wishes to throw first or last.
- If the scores are equal after the first round of penalty throws, it shall be continued until a decision is reached. In the second round, the other team shall start. Again, five players shall be named who are eligible to play (the players named before may be named once again).
- In the second round, a decision (a winner) is reached when a goal difference arises after both teams have taken one throw each.
- Serious infractions committed during penalty throws shall be sanctioned by disqualification. If a thrower is disqualified or suffers an injury, an eligible substitute player shall be supplementary named.
- While the throws are being taken, only the player taking the throw, the current goalkeeper and the referees may enter the respective half of the playing court.
- If the number of eligible players falls below five, players may be named to take a second throw in the same round.

I HISTORY: 29 YEARS OF EHF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE MEN

1993/94

Final: ABC Braga vs TEKA Santander

22:22/21:23 (43:45)

The inaugural year of the Men's EHF Champions League saw the classic home and away knockout matches being replaced with a totally new system: 32 teams in two qualification rounds, eliminating 24 clubs. The remaining eight teams were placed into two groups of four. TEKA Santander and ABC Braga topped their respective groups and faced each other in the final. Santander narrowly kept the upper hand and started what should become an eight-year Spanish club winning streak in the Men's EHF Champions League.

1994/95

Final: Elgorriaga Bidasoa Irun vs Badel Zagreb

30:20 / 26:27 (56:47)

The final of the EHF Champions League's second season became the match of a lifetime for Irun's Nenad Perunicic, nicknamed "the canon" or "Il Conquistadore" by the fans. He was his team's key player in the final and, in his first year in Spain, not only he lifted the EHF Champions League but also the national championship trophy with Irun.

1995/96

Final: FC Barcelona vs Elgorriaga Bidasoa Irun

23:15 / 23:23 (46:38)

In the season that was marked by the "Bosman decision", which had substantial effects on transfer regulations and transfer fees in sport, FC Barcelona won their first EHF Champions League title. No other should be capable of dethroning the Catalan side for the next four years.

1996/97

Final: FC Barcelona vs Badel Zagreb

31:22 / 30:23 (61:45)

In their second consecutive EHF Champions League Final Barcelona dominated both matches against Badel Zagreb. And while the Spanish side celebrated their second EHF Champions League triumph, the Croatian side had lost their second final. Also in 1996/97 the so called "fast break" was born due to a rule change, making handball more attractive and athletic than ever before.

1997/98

Final: FC Barcelona vs Badel Zagreb

28:18 / 28:22 (56:40)

Barcelona beat Zagreb once more to win their third consecutive EHF Champions League title. But at least as much news as the repeated triumph made the wedding of Barcelona player Inaki Urdangarin who married Christina, youngest daughter of Spanish King Juan Carlos and Queen Sofia, on 4th October 1997.

1998/99

Final: Badel Zagreb vs FC Barcelona

22:22 / 18:29 (40:51)

Once again there were tears in Zagreb and joy in Barcelona. The Spanish team beat Zagreb in their third consecutive final and lifted the EHF Champions League trophy for the fourth time in a row. Zagreb's coach Velimir Klajic had to admit that Barcelona "at this moment in time, were quite simply the best club team in the world."

1999/00

Final: THW Kiel – FC Barcelona

28:25 / 24:29 (52:54)

THW Kiel became the first German team to make it into the Final but even a 28:25-victory in the final's first leg was not enough to end Barcelona's EHF Champions League winning streak. Backed by half of the Spanish national team and international stars like Christian Schwarzer and Tomas Svensson, Barcelona won their fifth title.

2000/01

Final: Portland San Antonio – FC Barcelona
30:24 / 22:25 (52:49)

For Barcelona it was a whole new feeling to watch another team celebrating at the end of the Champions League Final. Following five consecutive titles an era came to end when Spanish King Juan Carlos handed the huge trophy to Portland San Antonio at the end of all-Spanish Final.

2001/02

Final: Fotex Veszprem vs SC Magdeburg
23:21 / 25:30 (48:51)

One year after Barcelona's dominance had ended in the EHF Champions League, the dominance of Spanish clubs also came to an end, when SC Magdeburg became the first German team to win the competition. And late at night, at the end of a glittering party, Stefan Kretzschmar and coach Alfred Gislason were still up for jokes: "Training is on the agenda. The entire team is going to run through the whole town until 08:00 tomorrow morning," they said.

2002/03

Final: Portland San Antonio – Montpellier HB 27:19 / 19:31 (46:50)

A new star was born during the finals of the 2002/03 EHF Champions League season. Montpellier's Nikola Karabatic scored 11 goals in the first leg in Spain and another six in front of his home fans, enabling his team to turn around the eight goal defeat from the first leg and to become the first French side to win the CL.

2003/04

Final: Celje vs Flensburg- Handewitt
34:28 / 28:30 (62:58)

In March 2003 the EHF had decided on a new structure for the competition. Three teams from Spain and Germany now had a starting slot. Two representatives from Hungary, Slovenia, Denmark and Croatia would start in the Group Phase. Overall 32 teams (8 groups of 4 teams each) made up the Group Phase. Flensburg had profited from the new system but Slovenian side Celje was too strong in the final.

2004/05

Final: BM Ciudad Real vs FC Barcelona Cifec
28:27 / 27:29 (55:56)

Following four years without being present in the final, Barcelona won their sixth EHF Champions League title. And while the spectator record for one match was 10,000 fans, the whole city celebrated Barcelona's victory. "We did a lap of honour in the Stadion Nou Camp in front of 100,000 spectators and were celebrated by the whole town," remembers Barcelona's Dane Lars Krogh Jeppesen.

2005/06

Final: Portland San Antonio vs BM Ciudad Real 19:25 / 28:37 (47:62)

Spanish businessman and BM Ciudad Real president, Domingo Diaz de Mera, had put together a team that proved to be unbeatable in the 2005/06 Champions League season. Mera bought superstars from all over Europe and the team around Olafur Stefansson, Mirza Dzomba, Didier Dinart et al. paid justified Mera's expenses when they beat Spanish rival San Antonio in the final.

2006/07

Final: SG Flensburg- Handewitt vs THW Kiel
28:28 / 27:29 (55:57)

The EHF Champions League, through the efforts of the 2005 founded EHF Marketing GmbH, became a unified look. Since 2006, TV spectators across Europe know they are watching a men's EHF Champions League match when they see the distinct blue lagoon and black supplied by flooring specialists Gerfloor in addition to the season's individual yellow and blue handball supplied by adidas. On the sport side of things, Kiel won their first EHF Champions League title, beating arch rival Flensburg-Handewitt.

BM Ciudad Real vs THW Kiel 27:29 / 31:25 (58:54)

In the 2007/08 season a second Group Phase with four groups of four teams each replaced the Last 16-matches and the quarter-finals. The first teams of each group qualified for the semi-finals and in the final 2006 champion Ciudad Real faced 2007 champion THW Kiel. The Spanish side prevailed and could win their second EHF Champions League trophy.

THW Kiel vs BM Ciudad Real 39:34 / 27:33 (66:67)

THW Kiel and BM Ciudad Real faced each other in the final for the second year in a row and even though Kiel had won the first leg of the final by five goals, it was Ciudad Real that won the EHF Champions League for a second consecutive time. Kiel were still in the lead by 20:16 after 39 minutes but with a series of 10:3 goals within 11 minutes Ciudad Real turned the match in their favour.

2009/10

FC Barcelona Borges vs HW Kiel 34:36

In the 2009/10 season the number of participating teams in the first Group Phase was reduced from 32 to 24. Four groups of six teams each were formed and the first four teams qualified for the knockout phase which replaced the second group phase. For the first time the VELUX EHF FINAL4 tournament, which combined the Semi-finals and the Final, was held in Cologne, Germany, to decide the champion. THW Kiel won their second title when they beat Barcelona.

2010/11

FC Barcelona vs Renovalia Ciudad Real 27:24

Since 2010 the event is known as the VELUX EHF Champions League. 40,000 fans stormed to Cologne to attend the VELUX EHF FINAL4 weekend and TV viewing audience figures went to a new height. 310 million viewers from 76 countries worldwide watched 2,800 hours of TV transmissions 2010/11. Barcelona extended their lead as the most successful club in EHF Champions League history when won their seventh title, beating Ciudad Real in the Final.

THW Kiel vs BM Atletico Madrid 26:21

The German powerhouse sensationally lost in their first home match of the season against Montpellier, but no other team was able to overcome THW Kiel throughout the remaining of the season. Gíslason led his team to the third trophy in the club's history becoming the first coach who won with two different teams. Defending champions from Barcelona were eliminated in the quarter-finals by AG København, but the Danish side was stopped in the semi-final by Atlético Madrid, who made it to the VELUX EHF FINAL4 for the fourth time in a row.

FC Barcelona vs HSV Hamburg 29:30 AET

HSV Hamburg go into the new season as the defending champion. For the first time the extra-time had to decide the winner. In 20 years of EHF Champions League history there have only been two champions, Montpellier in 2003 and Celje in 2004, who neither came from Spain nor from Germany. The All-Stars team of the 20 years were announced: Goalkeeper Tomas Svensson (SWE), Left Wing Stefan Kretzschmar (GER), Left Back Filip Jicha (CZE), Line Player Andrei Xepkin (ESP), Centre Back Jackson Richardson (FRA), Right Back (Oláfur Stefansson), Right Wing Mirza Džomba (CRO), Best defender Didier Dinart (FRA)

2013/14

SG Flensburg-Handewitt vs THW Kiel 30:28

For the third year in a row a team from Northern Germany prevailed as SG Flensburg-Handewitt took both of their opponents at the VELUX EHF FINAL4 by surprise. In the semi-final the “Vranjes boys” eliminated giants of FC Barcelona after a penalty-shoot-out thriller and made the Cinderella story perfect by beating their neighbours from Kiel 30:28 in the final.

2014/15

FC Barcelona vs MKB-MVM Veszprem 28:23

The defending champions from SG Flensburg-Handewitt were eliminated already in the Last 16 as well as Rhein-Neckar Löwen. The end of the three-year-old reign of Bundesliga was sealed only in Cologne as THW Kiel were unable to repeat their 2014 semi-final win against Veszprem. However, the effort of Hungarian champions for their premiere trophy were denied by FC Barcelona who rose to the throne for the eighth time in the EHF history.

2015/16

KS Vive Tauron Kielce vs MVM Veszprem 39:38 after 7m shootout

This final went down to history books of the Champions League as a breathtaking classic. Deep in the second half Veszprem were leading by nine goals, still Kielce put up a spirited fight to force the extra-time. Even the additional ten minutes could not solve the thriller and in the 7m shootout Kielce were luckier with Julen Aguinagalde’s last effort clinched the maiden title for the Polish champions adding only fifth country to the list of winners.

2016/17

Paris Saint-Germain Handball vs HC Vardar 23:24

For the first time in history no German team made it to the EHF FINAL4. The sold-out arena still saw yet another edition of some showcase handball and three out of four matches ended in only one goal differences. HC Vardar beat the buzzer for two days in a row as Luka Cindric sank FC Barcelona Lassa in the semi-final and Ivan Cupic clinched the maiden title for the Macedonian team in the final against PSG sending their country into a handball frenzy.

2017/18

HBC Nantes vs Montpellier HB 27:32

In its 25th anniversary the European top flight once again underlined the rule that favourites cannot take anything for granted in this fierce competition. No fewer than three French teams made it to the final tournament in Cologne and after both finalists from the previous edition (Vardar and PSG) failed in the semi-finals it was a showdown between two pre-season underdogs HBC Nantes and Montpellier HB in the final. Mainly courtesy of a brilliant performance of their playmaker Diego Simonet Montpellier returned to the European throne after 15 years and became the first team from Group C or D with this achievement.

2018/19

HC Vardar vs Telekom Veszprém HC 27:24

The Macedonian champions unexpectedly returned to the throne. Despite losing several key players in the summer and during the season Vardar reached their third VELUX EHF FINAL4 in a row. After having stunned Barcelona in the semi-finals they held the upper hand throughout the whole final over Veszprem, whose losing streak in the Champions League finals was extended to four games. After what many saw as the club’s last shot at glory tens of thousands of people were welcoming the champions in the streets of Skopje.

THW Kiel vs Barça 33:28

For the first time in the history of the competition, the final of the EHF Champions League could only be played halfway through the following season. In March 2020, the Covid-19 pandemic put the Champions League on hold after the group phase. The Last 16 and the quarter-finals had to be cancelled, but the EHF FINAL4 could be played - on 28/29 December, more than six months after its initial date. It didn't seem to bother Kiel, who had returned to the competition in the 2019/20 season after one year in the EHF Cup. The German side didn't arrive as the tournament favourites in Cologne, but edged Veszprém in the semi-finals before upsetting Barça 33:28 in the final to claim their fourth title, but first in eight years.

Barça vs Aalborg Håndbold 36:23

Two clubs who had a stunning season, each in their own way, made it all the way to the final in Cologne in June 2021, and this time favourites Barça truly delivered and took their ninth title. In what was head coach Xavi Pascual's last match in charge, the Spanish champions eased past Aalborg to complete a perfect season: 20 matches played, 20 matches won - a feat never seen before in the EHF Champions League. The success story of Aalborg was also impressive: the Danish side didn't have an outstanding group phase campaign but grew stronger and stronger as the season progressed. They beat Flensburg in the quarter-final to get to their maiden EHF FINAL4, where they defeated PSG in the semi-final, only for their fairy-tale run coming to an end in the final.

Barça vs Lomza Vive Kielce 37:35 after penalties

In the lead-up to the season's climax, the defending champions suffered just three defeats - two of them in the group phase against Kielce. However, when it mattered most Barça held the upper hand even though there was a lot of luck involved. For the second time in history, a penalty shoot-out had to determine the champions. After Ludovic Fabregas, who returned to the line-up from an injury just before the EHF FINAL4, scored the trophy-clinching goal the Catalan giants added a tenth CL silverware to their trophy cabinet and became only the first club which defended the title at the EHF FINAL4. After two corona-hit editions, the 2022 event was played again in front of a sold-out crowd which was treated not only by a great final but also by another thriller in the third place match, when THW Kiel defeated Veszprém also only after a penalty shoot-out drama. What a prelude to the anniversary 30th season it was!

ON THE ROAD TO COLOGNE

The TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 is the culmination of the European handball season. The two-day event sees the best four men's teams in Europe playing to decide the ultimate winner of the Machineseecker EHF Champions League Men. The 2023 edition will take place on 17/18 June in Cologne, which hosts the event for the 14th straight time and will continue to do so until 2026.

On the eve of the 2022 semi-finals it was confirmed that Cologne's LANXESS arena will host the highlight of European club handball until 2026.

The success story between the EHF FINAL4 Men, the LANXESS arena and the City of Cologne started in 2010 when the first event was held in front of a capacity crowd of 19,750 spectators. The decision to create a new format for the final phase of the EHF Champions League was seen as crucial for the growth of handball across Europe. The aim was to create a flagship event, one that could compete on the international sports market and make the Europe's leading club competition even more attractive to fans, partners and sponsors. The success of all previous editions up to date showed that this format has been the right strategy. It has set new standards in organisation and entertainment; it is not just four games played over two days but an event that combines outstanding sports and unique entertainment.

After two years of pandemic with the EHF FINAL4 being played behind almost closed doors in 2020 and in front of only 1,000 fans in 2021, the 13th edition in 2022 followed in the footsteps of previous events with a sold-out arena and 19,750 spectators witnessing Barça's 37:35 victory after penalty shoot-out in the final against Lomza Vive Kielce from Poland, making the Spanish side the first to successfully defend the title since the inaugural EHF FINAL4 was played in 2010.

Ticket sales for the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2023 which will take place on 17/18 June 2023 are ongoing. Furthermore, fans that are looking for an exclusive VIP experience, have the opportunity to join the EHF Champions Club. Members come to enjoy special benefits throughout the season and can experience the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2023 from their exclusive VIP Courtside seats.
