TITLE SPONSOR OF THE EHF FINAL4

Foreword EHF President

Dear handball friends,

It is an immense honour for me to welcome supporters, players, officials and partners to the second part of the 2022/23 season in the Machineseeker EHF Champions League.

Already during the last summer, the EHF and EHF Marketing welcomed Machineseeker as the new title sponsor of the competition. With the addition of our new partners we are confident that the EHF Champions League remains the leading indoor sports competition in Europe.

After becoming the first team to defend the title at the EHF FINAL4 in Cologne last June, Barça are seeking their third title in a row this season. After ten rounds of the 2022/23 group phase they were well on their way to this ambition as Barça and their rivals from the last final Industria Kielce occupied the top two spots in group B. However, former EHF Champions League runners-up HBC Nantes and another powerhouse THW Kiel headed the chasing pack of teams bidding to qualify directly for the quarter-finals. Paris Saint-Germain HB and Telekom Veszprém HC, two clubs that have appeared regularly in Cologne, have made a strong early impression in group A – but German champions SC Magdeburg remained within striking distance.

The competition is resuming following the climax of the 28th IHF Men's World Championship, hosted by Poland and Sweden, and won by Denmark. The victorious Danish squad featured 10 EHF Champions League players, as did the respective squads of the beaten semi-finalists, Spain and Sweden, while silver medallists France counted 12 such players in their cohort. Six of the seven players from the All-star team play in the top-tier competition. It goes to show that the EHF Champions League truly is the pinnacle of our sport at club level.

The Machineseeker EHF Champions League continues with the format that we introduced before the start of the 2019/20 season. With the group phase featuring 16 top-class teams in two groups of eight, the top two clubs in each group will qualify directly for the quarter-finals. Four more teams (3rd-6th) in each group will advance to the play-offs, but the teams finishing in seventh and eighth place will be eliminated. Before we reach the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2023 in Cologne, the knockout phase will consist of the play-offs and the quarter-finals.

As the 'appointment to view' system remains unchanged for this season, fans can enjoy seeing their favourite team's away matches played at 18:45 or 20:45 CET/CEST on Wednesday and Thursday evenings throughout the season.

For the EHF and our broadcast partners, it is a pleasure to bring you the thrilling action from the Machineseeker EHF Champions League from the group phase until the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2023 is played on 17/18 June 2023. We know that the clubs and players will provide everyone with an exceptional culmination of the group phase. On behalf of the EHF and EHF Marketing, I hope that you enjoy another fantastic season

Yours in sport,

Michael Wiederer
