TITLE SPONSOR OF THE EHF FINAL4

Foreword EHF President

Dear handball friends,

It is a real privilege for me to welcome supporters, players, officials and partners to the next few rounds of the group phase in the 2023/24 season of the Machineseeker EHF Champions League, taking us up to round 10, the final one before the competition takes a break until February.

This season may still be in the early stages, but thanks to our title sponsor, Machineseeker, and our other partners, it is clear that the EHF and EHF Marketing are delivering a showpiece club competition that remains the leading indoor sports competition in Europe. I hope that all our fans have been thrilled by the Machineseeker EHF Champions League so far.

We have all been treated to some tremendous action on the court over the opening six rounds. Such is the intensity of the competition, every team has suffered at least one defeat so far. In group A, THW Kiel lead the way with five wins from six; the Zebras began brightly by winning the opening Match of the Week against HC Zagreb, and the only team to get the better of them so far are exciting newcomers Kolstad Handball. Paris Saint-Germain Handball, Aalborg Håndbold and Industria Kielce have also got off to a strong start, and though HC Eurofarm Pelister are still looking for their first points, they have been a credit to the competition so far, pushing some of the top teams close in front of their raucous home crowd.

Record-winners Barça lead the way in group B but only on goal difference, after they suffered their first loss of the campaign, against Telekom Veszprém HC, who join Barça on 10 points. Along the way, we saw a repeat of last year's semi-final at the EHF FINAL4 in Cologne, where on this occasion, Barça edged out SC Magdeburg in a thriller. The current champions are currently in a healthy position with four wins from six, as are GOG, their opponents for round 7's Match of the Week. A win in front of the MOTW cameras will be important, should they not want to be caught by those in the chasing pack, such as FC Porto and Montpellier HB, in what is proving to be a hotly-contested group.

So many teams are still in with a strong chance of going a very long way in this season's competition, and the only thing for certain is that there will be plenty of twists and turns before we reach the play-off round in March and April, let alone the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2024 in Cologne in June!

After the conclusion of round 10 on 7 December 2023, the Machineseeker EHF Champions League will be on hiatus until mid-February 2024, with many players on duty for their national teams at what is sure to be a record-breaking event in Germany - EHF EURO 2024. With the world's very best players taking part in both events, it goes to show that the Machineseeker EHF Champions League and EHF EURO are truly the pinnacle of our sport at club and international level.

For the EHF and our broadcast partners, it is a pleasure to bring you the thrilling action from the Machineseeker EHF Champions League from the group phase until the Truckscout24 EHF FINAL4 2023 is played on 8/9 June 2024 at the impressive LANXESS arena in Cologne, Germany. We know that the clubs and players will continue to provide everyone with an exceptional group phase.

On behalf of the EHF and EHF Marketing, I hope that you enjoy the remaining action in 2023.
