TITLE SPONSOR OF THE EHF FINAL4

Foreword EHF President

Dear handball friends,

The record-breaking Men's EHF EURO 2024 in Germany is still on everybody's minds as the best clubs in Europe are now ready to return to the courts for the decisive rounds 11 to 14 of the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2023/24 group phase.

Four playing positions in the EHF EURO All-star Team were awarded to EHF Champions League players, with Industria Kielce's Andreas Wolff (GER) as the goalkeeper, Barça's Hampus Wanne (SWE) on the left wing, Telekom Veszprém HC's Ludovic Fabregas (FRA) as the line player, and SC Magdeburg's Magnus Saugstrup (DEN) as defender. Even more so, Veszprém's Nedim Remili from EHF EURO champions France was awarded the MVP title. Those and many more stars that shined for their national team at the European championship in January will light up the continental topflight club competition again when play resumes in February.

The 16 clubs in the EHF Champions League continue their group phase journey with the last four rounds in the race for the quarter-final and play-off spots. The two best-ranked teams from group A and B will all advance directly to the quarter-finals, while the teams finishing between third and sixth will first proceed to the play-offs. The home of club handball – LANXESS arena in Cologne, which also hosted the EHF EURO final weekend – is again the coveted destination, with the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2024 scheduled for 8/9 June.

In group A, four-time winners THW Kiel have opened a three-point lead ahead of round 11, but the teams ranked from second (Aalborg Håndbold) to seventh (Kolstad Handball) are separated by just three points, leaving everything open to play for in the last four rounds. In group B, record champions Barça sit on top, but defending champions SC Magdeburg and Telekom Veszprém HC are just two and four points behind, respectively, while the battle for the play-off spots promised to be just as tight.

The questions, who will make the quarter-finals directly and who will advance to the play-offs first, will be answered in the upcoming weeks, as the Machineseeker EHF Champions League is a guarantee for a mouth-watering series of group phase matches in another battle of epic proportions. No wonder the seasonal campaign for the EHF Champions League is titled: 'Dare to Rise.'

Enjoy the exciting business end of the group phase!
